RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA

THURSDAY, JULY 25, 1878

BUSINESS MANAGER.

Mr. L. S. Burchard will, from and after this date, be sole business manager for the DAILY and WEEKLY GAZETTE. He will collect all bills due for subscription, advertising and job work, and settle all accounts with this office. Parties indebted to the office are urged to make prompt settlement.

RENO, July 22, 1878.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A Democratic exchange says: "There is not a man in Nevada to-day that believes Bradley is competent for Governor; there is not a man who knows him who will pretend to claim that Bradley is capable of distinguishing between the bullion tax bill which he vetoed and that at present in force; there is not a Democrat in Nevada who does not feel, in his heart, that to nominate Bradley for a third term is open and palpable stultification; there is not a Democrat in Nevada of brains or prominence enough to run for poundmaster, who will not admit, if he be honest, that to break down and override one of the cardinal doctrines of the party must bring lasting distrust and disgrace upon it, such as can in no wise be compensated for by the hope of temporary success."

O. K. Stampley, of the St. Charles hotel, Carson, has thrown a castor into the ring. He says that he has a host of friends, and they are all beseeching him, as a favor to the State, to permit his name to be used as a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor. Mr. Stampley has suffered this persecution for some time in secret; but shows signs of weakness in giving publicity to the fact of his affliction. We presume that Mr. S. will yield gracefully to the enormous pressure. Mr. Stampley is a Democrat, and if he is not beaten in convention will, on the 8th of November next, feel sad and revengeful.

The Silver State reports that not one national silver dollar has yet been disbursed at Fort McDermitt. The troops have been paid regularly, but not silver or silver certificates have been used. There is an effort on the part of our treasury officials to render the silver bill inoperative. In fact silver is going out of circulation very fast. In this western country, where we make it, there seems to be some necessity for converting silver into gold. Why is it?

The name of Milton R. Elstner, of Gold Hill, is mentioned for State Controller, in the Democratic sense. We have before said and still believe that John B. Williams, of Washoe county, is the best man in the Democratic ranks for the office mentioned. This is our settled conviction, notwithstanding the fact that a Republican will be the next Controller.

Judge Belden, of San Jose, has decided that Chinese laundries cannot be compelled to pay $30 license a month. The Constitutional Convention will take this matter into serious consideration; but it is doubtful if any remedial measures can be adopted, owing to the Federal statutes. The Call suggests that there is no law compelling people to patronize the Chinese.

Speaking of the DAILY and WEEKLY GAZETTE, its growth of subscription and absurdly low rate of subscription, we are reminded of what Benjamin Franklin said, when inspired by the wisdom and fore-sight which made of him a philosopher. Said Franklin: "My son, deal with men who advertise; you will never lose by it."

The Philadelphia Press says in commenting upon the great investigation farce: "They call him 'Apollo Potter' now, because every time he calls a new witness he strikes a fresh lyre." In this paragraph the Press has written a complete history of the Potter movement, its developments, results, and Democratic defenders.

The Times-Review announces the failure of the hay crop in the Humboldt valley and the destruction of the grain and vegetable crop on the western slope of the Bull Run mountains by frost. We should like to chronicle the ruin of the grasshopper crop in Sierra valley.

DEMOCRATIC DIALOGUE.

The following dialogue is reported from Eastern Nevada:

Sentinel—[Soliloquizing in a loud voice]—Senator Jones is no such a thing. Bland did it. Jones never did anything. A. M. Hillhouse is the choice of this paper, after Cassidy. Wonder if Jones will hear this?

Enter Silver State [soliloquizing]—Jones can't be beaten. Let's compromise and get Sharon's seat. [Aloud]. Jones was the originator, and is entitled to everything, irrespective of anybody.

[They confront each other].

Sentinel—My friend, you are sadly in error. Bland did it. Don't give me away by opposition. Let's both say that Bland did it.

S. S. [winking violently]—No; can't you ever twig anything, or are you gone daft over Bradley and the bullion tax. We may get Sharon's seat by a chance, but never Jones'. We must scratch out, that's all. Besides Jones is coming; I hear the whistle now.

[Enter Jones].

Sentinel and Silver State together, repeating in unison—Senator Jones is the best man who ever lived in Nevada. He is entitled to the admiration of everybody, irrespective of party, for his able advocacy of the paramount interest of this battle-born State, on the Senate Floor.

PIOUS AUSTIN.

Churches till You Can't Rest—All About the Parsons.

EDITOR GAZETTE: Austin might be called the "city of churches" of Nevada, for, notwithstanding her small population, the majority being workmen, she supports three respectable churches, with settled pastors. They are good brick structures, too, and with good seating capacity. The Catholic church is noted for its tall steeple and loud bell, and may be said to be "way up"—the hillside. Father Phelan breaks to this flock the wafers of life, and the flock is a pretty large one. Next in size comes the Methodist chapel, to which is attached a good parsonage. The church has been for some time sub umbra, and the parsonage empty, but it now rejoices in a new pastor, two organists, the loudest choir this side of a camp-meeting, and a full crew of Cornishmen. Mr. Crall, the new pastor, is a first-class man,

YOUNG AND UNMARRIED, which makes him popular among the ladies; and talented, which makes him popular with everyone. He has a good voice, discourses in well-rounded periods, and has studied rhetoric to some advantage. He has one good trait which is rare among clergymen of his denomination. He knows how to pronounce the English language; wears no livery; is not unctious and sanctimonious like the "Chadband" school, nor boldly blasphemous like the Talmage tribe. He does not strain after a witty saying, like Beecher, and has not outraged society for the sake of notoriety. Then we have a bijou of a little church, the Episcopal, built by A. A. Curtis—a credit to his liberality, and a credit to Austin. It is the neatest in the interior in the State; at least

PARSON KELLY SAYS SO, and Kelly knows. We have stood under the domes of St. Peter's and St. Paul's, and wandered among the wealth and wonders of Santa Croce, and we are not going to compare our neat and tasty sanctuary with any such renowned piles; but we do say, architectural technology aside, that it is a very beautiful little structure, has a very sweet little organ built to the left of the chancel, played by a very able little organist, and a choir much above mediocrity. Mr. Blakiston, the rector, is a very unassuming, excellent man, and his congregation is very select. Notwithstanding all of this, there are some propositions made to raise a thousand dollars to bring Mr. Beecher here to lecture, adding so much to the inflation of the Brooklyn wind-bag. Was there ever such folly? We offered to lecture for half that sum and pay our own hotel bill, and a committee waited upon us to make some arrangements. We were compelled, in response to their interviewing, to say that we had never been arraigned at a bar—they said nothing about Triplett & Clark's; we had never broken up a family, and could not boast of the good old New England name of Beecher; had never run a tabernacle nor employed a photographer to write down our smart sayings, nor run a paper in which to advertise them; and finally we could not define "nest-hiding." That did for us, and the committee would not admit our claim. In a fit of disappointment we asked the Chairman which he would rather kiss, the Pope's toe or Harriet Beecher Stowe's. He scratched his bald pate and said "Elizabeth." Now what can you expect from such men but to vote for

"Broadhorns" or Ben Butler, and cut down the salary of a City Attorney to one dollar a month!—men who are willing to raise a thousand dollars to see Henry Ward bare his massive throat, shake his leonine locks and strain after witty sayings like an anacconda swallowing a goat. But Henry Ward's income is not enough to meet his modest wants, and a little ten thousand-dollar trip now and then comes handy in eking out his miserable salary of $25,000, which, with the profits of his publications, is usually all Mr. Beecher has to subsist on. We have great respect for talent, but we have no respect for talent which can let itself out to be exhibited like a common monstrosity, or trade on a notoriety at which most men—virtuous men, certainly—would blush. Wherever he goes, the photographers are sure of a job, for the Reverend fop would rather be dead than miss the pleasure of seeing his picture hung up in shop windows; and you'll find, if he lectures in Reno, boys selling them at the door and in the house, as they do those of a ballet dancer at a theater, the "bearded lady" at the circus, and the "two-headed baby" in the side-show.

BEECHER AND PIXLEY.

He is going to introduce in California his last new publication: "How to Live on a Dollar a Day," and he and Frank Pixley are going to settle the common school question. The one thinks the workingman has too much good grub, and the other has the idea of poor people that Jesus had of Paul: "Much learning doth make thee mad." They might illustrate their theories by introducing a band of Piutes to convince the world that neither good food, nor education nor even fine clothes are necessary to perfect happiness, and that it is not even necessary to work. James Buchanan was known in Pennsylvania in old times as "Tencent Jimmy," from a like position he held as to workingmen's pay. But Jimmy was of the opinion that work was beneath a white man and, for that reason, was the fast friend of slavery. Therefore the poor white trash of the South never labored, and never went to school, and the poor black slave worked but got no ten cents, and as a result—the rebellion. Call Dennis.

Jottings.

—The Success tailings mill at Washoe has been started up.

—Mark M. Coats has leased the Pollard house and will do his best to run it as a first-class hotel. B. B. Baum will be his right-hand man.

—"Bottle" Ellis, the boss bug-bagger of Washoe, has the insectivorous thanks of the GAZETTE crawlerologist for sundry valuable contributions to the office cabinet.

—If some one were to explode a Chinese bomb in the court-house one of these hot afternoons, the amount of good, solid sleep that would be destroyed is shocking to think of.

—C. H. Merrill, who bought the Saddle Rock restaurant yesterday will reopen that establishment on Monday. Mr. Merrill is an old Renoite and knows how to run a restaurant.

—The citizen of Reno who does not own a hose and who doesn't sit on the shady side of his premises and squirt water for five or six hours a day this hot weather can not justly be considered as one of the leading attractions of the town.

—N. Soderberg, attorney-at-law, has his office with Robert M. Clarke, two doors from Dr. Bergman's office, second street. Mr. Soderberg has earned a reputation for care and promptness in the discharge of his profession.

—The Chinese vegetable gardens up by the dam have recently been outrageously raided upon by boys going swimming. Young potatoes, and other vegetables have been pulled up by the roots. Notices will be posted and arrests made if this sort of thing be repeated.

—W. J. Marsh left on this morning's train for a visit to his parents, at Northeast, Erie county, Pennsylvania, who will celebrate their golden wedding on the 6th of August. It is twenty-nine years since Mr. Marsh, who is a forty-niner, saw the old folks.

—The case of J. B. Marshal vs. the Golden Fleece mining company, which was referred to Judge Haydon to take testimony, is galloping along. All the transactions of the company for years past must be examined into. Christmas will probably come round before the business is finished.

HOG CHOLERA.—Hog cholera prevails at Wadsworth. The beasts are seized with vomiting and purging and die in a few days. The cause of the disease is not known. Those that are confined in pens suffer equally with those that are allowed to run loose and eat what they find. The hot weather has probably something to do with it.

SURPRISE VALLEY.

A Batch of News from a Prosperous and Enterprising Region.

T. K. Hymers yesterday returned from a trip to Camp Bidwell, which he took in company with Colonel Potter, United States Paymaster, and his clerk. The Colonel went to pay the troops and Mr. Hymers went to see what he could see. He reports favorably of the condition of things in Surprise valley. The crops are good and the people in good spirits and prosperous. The Indians have not troubled them at all, although their neighbors in Warren valley have been bothered to some extent. Wilson had all his buildings burned and his stock run off by the reds. Nobody, was killed, however. The farmers in this valley have left themselves wholly unarmed by giving their guns to the Indians for work done. This kind of pay has been in vogue for years. Orville Sessions is supplying Bidwell with meat and has rather a big contract, as a hundred Piutes are getting their rations every morning like the soldiers. They are an enterprising lot in Surprise valley, especially in the matter of roads. A toll road from Ross' cabin to Pyramid lake will soon be made, and also a road to Alturas, which will cause all the supplies for the valley to be drawn from here instead of in part from Redding. Mr. Hymers reports that the citizens of Roop county want Washoe to pay a part of the expense of fixing the roads. They will raise $300 by private subscription and only want about $150 from us. We collect taxes there and the demand of the Roopites is not unjust. Besides, good roads would benefit the business of Reno. Mr. Hymers went to Bidwell over the proposed route of the toll road mentioned above and says that only some straightening and clearing will have to be done. He came back by way of Pyramid lake and visited Dr. Wood's ranch. The Doctor still takes a gentle pride in raising spuds as big as foot-balls, and cabbages which cast a shade in which the cows find protection from the sun. B. F. Murphy is successfully running his salt works over in Roop, selling all he can produce. His salt is of excellent quality, and everybody who knows Murphy will be glad to learn that he is making money. As for Hymers, the trip has put a healthy sunburn on his blonde features and made it necessary for him to let the contract for the tightening of his waistband.

He Had Worn out His Usefulness.

"I'm goin' to stop drinkin'," announced a leading resident on Commercial row this afternoon.

"Why?" demanded a shocked and startled friend.

"Because," said the l. r., with some sadness, "it's a cursed waste of time an' money. I drink to get drunk, I do, an' damme the drunk won't come under ten dollars. Beer on'y fills me up till I can't breathe with no comfort an' whisky gags me after the tenth or fifteenth drink. When I mix it it on'y makes me sick. The drunk won't come no more. Seems to me I'm gettin' old, an' it's time for me to lay down the burden of life an' make way for younger men."

A silent clasp of the hand and an eloquent glance showed the friend understood and sympathized.

An Appeal to the Shot Gun.

There is trouble between Wm Tiffany and the Truckee and Steamboat Spring Irrigation Canal Company. Tiffany's ranch is near the California State line. The company wanted to run a ditch through what Tiffany claimed to be his land, and he would not let them under $150. They offered $25. He wouldn't take it. Yesterday morning Chinamen were set to work to dig the ditch anyhow. Tiffany appeared with a shot-gun and stopped proceedings. An arrest followed. Today an examination into the ownership is being made on the ground.

RANCHERS, TAKE NOTICE.—Mr. George F. Kelley is traveling over the farming country for the purpose of introducing his device for unloading and stacking hay. The invention of Mr. Kelley is now in use on several ranches on the Truckee meadows, and seems to give satisfaction. Mr. Kelley promises us that on Saturday or Monday next he will give a full description of his device in the GAZETTE. The attention of our enterprising ranchers is directed to the GAZETTE of those dates. Mr. Kelley is evidently a liberal and intelligent servant of the farmer.

THE APPROACHING FAIR.

General Interest Among California Turfmen.

W. R. Chamberlain has returned from a visit to California in the interest of our coming fair, or, more properly, the racing part of it. He interviewed the Sacramento, Bay District, Oakland and Vallejo associations and reports that the horsemen generally will bring up their flyers. Reno bears a first-class reputation among the turfmen of California. No horsewoggling is permitted on our track, and the climate is all that can be desired. Besides, the Renoite, when it comes to the pool-box, proves himself a better from Tartarus. It is too soon yet to state, with any degree of certainty, what horses will be sent up to rush for the purses, but Mr. Chamberlain says there is more good stock now than ever before—at least sixty runners being in the State. John Williams, of Sacramento, has eight horses and is sure to bring some of them. Hikok has animals at Treat's track, Oakland, and will be here. Henry Schwartz has fine runners and will probably show us three of them. Welch, of Oakland, will be here. Hinds will tote up two or three horses, and Kade will bring Diego. Marcus D. Borack, of the Spirit of the Times, and his editor, Mr. Simpson, will do up the fair for their paper. The President of the Oakland Association will also come. Mr. Chamberlain is of the opinion that the class of horses represented on our track will be better than at any previous meeting. Mr. Crocker has consented to the same arrangement as last year. Horses and exhibits will be carried from California and back for freight charges one way. In other words, full freight will be charged to bring the exhibits, but they will be carried back free of charge. Colonel Younger, of San Jose, inspired by the big medal he carried off last year, will have sixteen stalls of short-horn Durham. It is likely that some changes will be made in the racing programme. The committee will probably put back the three mile and repeat and put forward the 2:26, so that some of the horses entering for the latter can take part in the former. The managers of the races are very anxious that the citizens, at their meeting Saturday night, shall extend liberal aid.

Heathen Gamblers.

A very lively tan game is carried on in the second story of a house at the eastern end of Chinatown. The regular gambling license is paid but the heathen sports who run the house can easily stand that heavy tax. Two tables are in full blast night and day. The play is usually not very high, the gamblersome washmen, house servant or vegetable peddler do not risk the loss of more than two bits at a clatter. Occasionally a blooded Mongol declares himself and not only the house but the whole neighborhood is thrown into excitement. One day last week a Chinaman immortalized himself by losing over $300 in $50 bets. Now and again a white man may be seen trying his luck. He is commonly one of those degraded creatures who smoke opium and by constant association becomes as near like Chinaman as the Chinaman will stand.

INFORMATION GIVEN.—A gentleman writes the GAZETTE from Covington, Kentucky, asking a number of questions concerning the resources of this part of Nevada and inquiring what "opportunity" Reno offers for a man with a small capital. The gentleman is cordially informed that the opportunities are excellent, but that if he will only send along his small capital he needn't bother about coming himself. This is a rare opportunity.

A CHANCE FOR DEMOCRATS TO CHIN. There will be a meeting of the Democratic county central committee at 1 o'clock p. m. to morrow at the court-house. The object of the meeting is to fill vacancies on the committee, and all Democrats are invited to be present, as expressions of opinion as to the suitability of persons proposed to fill the vacancies will be desired, that the choice of the committee may not give offense to the dearly beloved voter.

FOR CONSTABLE.—Sam Fannon announces himself in to-day's GAZETTE as a candidate for constable, subject to the decision of the Reno delegation in the Republican County Convention. Mr. Fannon is a clerk in the Granger store, an old resident, and a man fitted in every way for the position to which he aspires.

LUCID LOUGHBOROUGH.

The Convincing Arguments of the Second Adventists.

Those who have confused notions of the prophecies of Daniel and Revelations, upon which the belief in the immediate second coming are founded, should go to hear Elder Loughborough and learn the beautiful simplicity of the arguments. A GAZETTE reporter slunk into the tent of the itinerant Adventist last evening and after listening twenty minutes was filled with amazement that reasonings so clear should not have long ago made Adventists of the whole world. The reporter took no notes, but has a very lucid recollection of what he heard. The Elder said that four great beasts came upon from the sea, diverse one from the other. He proved it by pointing out the animals on a chart that hung up behind the pulpit. The first was like a lion with eagle's wings and was ridden by a cherubim. The other beasts described and shown would draw big houses to a menagerie. One of the animals had ten horns, but the boss brute and the one which most convincingly proved that Daniel knew all about the American rebellion and the Franco-Prussian war was the two-horned beast. This intelligent creature appears to have put in his time carrying the Scarlet Woman on his back to and from the Abomination of Desolation. Another knock-down argument in favor of the early Reappearance was a biblical giant with feet of clay, legs of iron, belly of copper, cheek of brass and head of wood. It was all quite simple—merely a time and a time and a half a time, with the prophecy of seventy weeks and a large assortment of Patmos candlesticks. Hence the inevitable conclusion that before long the wicked shall be burned up root and branch, and that the heavens will be rolled back like a scroll and Elder Loughborough & Co. will ascend in the inverted tent with pyrotechnical accompaniments.

A FATHER'S JOYS.—It is a sweet thing to be the father of a lovely girl two years and a half old—especially if you are a journalist. It is also pleasant to be the banker of the same infant. It is also pleasant to have the precocious child drop into the office and yell before the whole staff for the two bits she deposited with you overnight, and which you have squandered in a wild carnival of beer.

FOR ROAD SUPERVISOR.—A. (Red Horse) Thompson comes to the front to-day in the GAZETTE as a candidate for the office of Road Supervisor of Reno township. Mr. Thompson is a Republican, knows all about roads, is an old Renoite and thoroughly honest. It would take a hard hunt to find a man better fitted for the place.

MUSIC, TARGET PRACTICE, TENNIS, REFRESHMENTS.—L. Wintermantel has made still further improvements in the appointments of his summer gardens and shooting galleries. FELLOWS' Compound Syrup!

—OF—

HYPOPHOSPHITES.

THIS DISCOVERY

Is the result of a series of Scientific Experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, the nervous system must be made vigorous and healthy."

One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power. This is followed by muscular relaxation, weakness, and emaciation of all the organs which depend upon them for health or involuntary muscular action, the weaker suffering first.

The inventor, acting upon this idea, that the muscles and nerves depend upon each other for efficient strength and action, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, became convinced, after months of experiment, that no other preparation produced such potent and direct effects upon the nervous system as his and except in cases of actual organic loss, that it would restore patients suffering from those maladies.

Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:—

Chronic Constipation,
Chronic Dyspepsia,
Asthma,
Chronic Bronchitis,
Consumption,
Chronic Diarrhea,
Chronic Laryngitis,
Melancholy,
Nervous Debility.

Debility, resulting from Typhoid and other low fevers, Diphtheritic Prostration, Hysteria, Hypochondria, Nervous Excitability, Marasmus or Wasting of the Muscles, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Singleness of the Liver, Indigestion and Feeble Action of the Heart, SUFFOCATING FEELINGS caused by mucous obstruction of the Lungs and Air Passages leading thereto, and Debility from various causes, Indigestion, Chronic Habitual Constipation, almost always arise from weakness of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels. In such cases, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the greatest service by inducing healthy peristaltic action of the intestines. The evacuations soon become copious and healthy, without producing the effect of purgative medicine.

Weakness of the JOINTS and MUSCLES, IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, and INWARD WASTING may be cured by attention to the regular described doses, and by due regard to the habits of life.

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites

The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced, and the large sale is the guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public.

This syrup will cure PULMONARY CONSUMPTION in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life in the third. It will cure ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, LARYNGITIS and COUGHS. It will cure all diseases originating from want of MUSCULAR ACTION and NERVOUS FORCE.

CONSUMPTION

Positively Cured.

All sufferers from this disease that are anxious to be cured should try Dr. Kisser's Celebrated Consumptive Powders. These Powders are the only preparation known that will cure Consumption and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs—indeed, so strong is our faith in them, and also to convince you that they are no humbug, we will forward to every sufferer, by mail, post paid, a free Trial Box.

We don't want your money until you are perfectly satisfied of their curative powers. I your life is worth saving, don't delay in giving these Powders a trial, as they will surely cure you.
